

So, what did I miss?

With Laurentian ski networks in a somewhat uncertain aqueous state, Thursday tour organizers were in need of a miracle inspiration for a place to ski....the Calvaire d'Oka perhaps...which our Carte Réseau has as no. 10 in the offering of the 18 one-off free ski centres.

So, some 8 pilgrim Vikings: Gordon Cohen, Katherine Walsh, Celia & Howard Bussey, Chris Lyle, Richard L'Heureux, Tim Baker & Derek Wills were happy to rendez-vous at the Parc national d'Oka to enjoy the 8 km "Stations of the Cross" loop, with a scenic post-climb lunch at Le Sommet.

Although the temperature was a mild -2 deg.C, and the ski trails not track set, the trail snow was firmly packed with a granulated sugar topping.

Let the attached photos tell the day's story!
