

Saturday Feb 23

The tour of the Viking Red was also blessed with great conditions although those who opted for waxable skis (me!) had trouble getting a grip climbing those hills facing the sun. The time of the year has come when there is a big difference in the snow on those trails in the sun and those in the shade. So, no-wax skis if you have 'em!